

Lightworkers World

BREAKTHROUGH STORY SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

Light Workers World is expanding! We are working on a TV show, a film project, a book, and more. We want to hear and share YOUR true stories of change and miracles.

This is an opportunity to shine your light, tell your story, and share your gifts. Now is the time for us to teach by example.

If you have had a breakthrough experience, here is more about what we are looking for:

We are looking for stories of life changes, 180 degree turns, transformation, or being of service. We want to hear your stories, your miracles... We are looking for stories such as leaving a dead end job to pursue your dreams, healing or breaking free from a tough family situation, leaving a stifling relationship, etc. These should be stories of triumph, and we are especially interested in stories that have a spiritual aspect or a Law of Attraction component or a fresh start into what matters most.

Submissions should be three to six paragraphs.

Please include the following four elements:

1. What pattern, problem, life situation, hurdle, or habit did you begin with? What is your back story? Please share from your heart.
2. What change was made, inside and out? What would you guess brought about this change? Was there a tool or exercise you used? Was there an AHA moment? A teacher, author or “cosmic synchronicity” that inspired you? Was there a shift in perspective? Did you take a NEW action? Really do some introspection so others can be helped too. Also, is there a sense you yourself created this change? Or was it some Higher or Inner Power (A mysterious power, or whichever word you use for the Universe)
3. What is happening NOW in your life, inside and out, as a result of this change?
4. MOST IMPORTANTLY: What would you say to someone else in a similar situation, who perhaps has yet to undergo a similar shift? This is an opportunity to be of service. Realize your story can touch lives and inspire millions of people to let go and live in true freedom....

Submit your story to us at Submissions@lightworkersworld.com Please put “Breakthrough Story Submission” in the subject line.

We read each submission carefully. But due to the volume we receive, please understand we may not respond to you personally. We will definitely let you know if your submission will be included in the book, posted on the website, or considered for the TV show.

Yours with Love,

Michael Alperstein, Michal Abney, and the Light Workers World team